Biography

Megan Norman is a former CIA officer with 18 years of combined international and domestic service. In 1996, she embarked on her career at CIA Headquarters in the Directorate of Intelligence before joining the Directorate of Operations as a Staff Operations Officer two years later. Megan served in 5 overseas tours, where she enjoyed a rewarding career and a rich family life, full of adventure. She is now a ceramic artist and an avid cyclist.